WHITE'S GUERRILLAS REPORTED TO BE RAIDING IN MARYLAND.

Poolesville Reported to have been Fired.

From parties from the neighborhood of Rock. ville and other portions of Montgomery county. Md., we learn, that it is reported there that a body of guerrillas, variously estimated at from 150 to 200 strong, crossed the Potomac at White's Ferry yesterday afternoon. The guerrillas are supposed to be commanded by White, who knows every foot of ground in that section of country.

At 12 o'clock last night a report was received at Rockville that the guerrillas had entered Poolesville, ransacked the stores, and then fired the town. The distance from White's Ferry to Pooles-

ville is 11 miles, and thence to Rockville is 18

A tew days ago a party of rebels appeared on the other side of the Potomac, in the neighborhood of Muddy Branch, but that point being guarded by a large force of our cavalry, they did not attempt a crossing.

At 2 o'clock this morning a report reached here from our advanced posts on the Rockville road, that last evening 2,000 mounted rebels crossed the river at the mouth of the Monocacy and were advancing on Rockville. The military authorities here, however, believe that the number of rebels who have crossed into Maryland is greatly overrated, and that it is nothing more than a horse stealing The rebel raid has occasioned considerable alarm in Montgomery county, and this morning the farmers living in the vicinity of Rockville were engaged in running their stock off

Farmers who have arrived here state that the party of rebels which appeared at Poolesville do not number over one hundred men. Gen. Harden who commands the troops on the Rockville road, has sent a force in pursuit of the invaders, and it is believed that they will not escape with impunity this time.

FLAGS CAPTURED BY SHERIDAN Yesterday, the battle flag of the 6th Virginia cavalry, captured by private Philip B. Boybutt, company A, 2d Massachusetts cavalry, at Luray, Sept. 24th, and the battle flag of the 32d battalion Virginia cavalry, captured by private Ed. Hanford, company H, 2d United States cavalry, near Woodstock, Oct. 9th, were presented to the Secretary of War. Secretary Stanton made a suitable acknowledgment, and directed that medals should be prepared to be presented to the brave men who captured the flags. THE REBELLION PLAYED OUT.

Thursday, a Rebel Sergeant, of Captain Kinsloe's guerrillas, came in and gave himself up to the 1st Michigan Cavalry, near Burke's Station, and stated that in his opinion the rebellion was played out and he had determined

THE NEW LOAN .- The work of opening the sealed proposals for the 5.20 six per cent. coinbearing-interest bonds, to the amount of $40,-000,000, was concluded yesterday at the Treasury Department. There were 490 bids, both single and com-

It will be seen from the above that over $19,000,000 were bid for at a premium above I per cent, consequent. ly the remaining $21,000,000 to comple the $40,-000,000 will be taken from the sums offered between par and 1 per cent. The following are the Washington bidders:

irst National Bank of Washington, W. S. Huntington, cashier, $694,000, from par to 17-100 premium. Bank of the Metropolis, Washington, $25,000 at 23; $25,000 at 3-10. Geo. Parker, $50,000 at par. W. A. Thompson, $2,100 at 1 per cent. premi-

The Vote on the Constitution in Maryland. The result of the vote in this State on the New Constitution cannot be determined until we have full returns from the counties, on the Eastern and Western Shores. The counties as we anticipated, have cast a heavy poll against the adoption of the Constitution. In some of the counties on the Western Shore it is reported that the Judges did not insist on voters taking the prescribed oath, and that in some districts two ballot boxes were usedone for voters who were sworn and the other for those who declined taking the oath. If these reports-and we give them only as reports-are true, they will materially effect the result, as the Governor will refuse to count the votes where the oath was not administered. As a matter of speculation we give the following table of majorities, reported majorities and estimated majorities:

MAJORITIES AND REPORTED MAJORITIES.

For. Against. Counties. Baltimore..... 300 Caroline..... 200 Queen Anne's..... Harford..... 300 Carroll.... St. Mary's,.... 1,000 Prince George's -Somerset Dorchester Worcester Montgomery..... Charles..... Calvert.....

We have put the estimated majorities at the highest figures we have heard claimed by the opponents of the Constitution, so as to cover all probabilities. If the calculation should prove correct there will be a majority of about two hundred against the Constitution to be overcome by the soldiers' vote. This vote, however, will be light .- Baltimore American.

THE DEATH OF JUDGE TANKY IN BALTI-MORE.-Yesterday the Baltimore bar held a large meeting in the Superior Court room of that city, relative to the death of Chief Justice Taney. Judge Martin presided, and resolutions reported by a committee, of which Hon. Reverdy Johnson was chairmain, laudatory of the deceased judge, and deploring his loss, were unanimously adopted. Speeches were made by Judge Martin, Wm. Schley, Hon. Reverdy Johnson, Judge Merrick, S. Ridgley, Esq., and others. Much scandal has been created in religious circles in France, by the fact that two distinguished people who died lately, refused to receive extreme unction. One of these was M. Cheve, a professed skeptic, the other was the youthful Princess Ladislas Czartorisks, daughter of Queen Christina.

It is said that the ex-King of Naples is about to raise a loan of twelve million francs on the security of the remains of his Roman property. The firemens' monument raised at Chicago, cost $10,000. It commemorates the Lake street calamity of 1857 in that city. In Paris they are about to get up a "Theatre Religieux," where nothing but pieces taken from the Old Testament will be played.

The Webster brought up a heavy freight load of condemned military accoutrements sent here to be turned into the Government store-house. She brings no news from the front, and during the time she laid at City Point, which was from Thursday evening at 4 o'clock until Friday morning at ten, the report of not a single gun was heard there. ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS OF THE REBEL RAID INTO MARYLAND YESTERDAY.

We learn the following additional particulars of the Rebel crossing into Maryland yesterday. As heretofore stated, they crossed at White's Ferry, and camped for a while on the farm of Mr. Daniel White, who lives on this side of the Ferry. Mr. White saw them approaching, and in order to save his stock run it off. These guerrillas numbered 300. Before dark the Rebels moved in the direction of Poolesville. REPORTED CAPTURE OF PAYMASTERS. It has been very generally reported to-day that Major Moore and another paymaster, who were on the train destroyed by Mosby on the Eultimore and Ohio railroad, between Kearneysville and Martinsburg, on Thursday night were captured and robbed of $175,000. As no mention has been made of such capture in the published accounts, we are inclined to doubt VISIT TO THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. This morning, the steamer Keyport, Captain Tolbert, left 6th street wharf for City Point, having on board Secretary Stanton, General Meigs, Surgeon General Barnes, and others. The distinguished party are understood to be bound on a visit to Gen. Grant.

The Mace and Coburn intended Prize Fight-The London Times on Union successes in the Field. NEW YORK, October 15 .- Per the steamship

Hecla, some particulars have been received concerning the prize fight between Mace and Coburn. It was stated in the former foreign advices that the contest was postponed for the present, if not altogether, owing to a dispute arising relative to the choice of a referee. It now appears that Cohurn paced the field intended for the scene of the fight, amid tremendous shouts from the immense multitude. Mace did not make his appearance. It is expected that Coburn will claim the stakes. The matter stands over for adjudication by the stakeholders on the 7th.

The London Times says the capture of At lanta by Sherman and the subsequent victory of Sheridan renders the re-election of Mr. Lincoln almost certain.

THE FUNERAL OBSEQUIES OF THE LATE CHIEF JUSTICE TANEY .- This morning, at 7% o'clock, the remains of the late Chief Justice Roger B. Taney, of the Supreme Court of the United States, left the city for Frederick in a special train, consisting of two cars, sent down by Mr. Garrett, president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, in charge of Conductor J. P. Dukebart, drawn by engine No. 42, Jno. Baldwin, engineer. The entire arrangements were under the direction of Marshal Lamon, Mr. Jenkins, of Baltimore, being the undertaker. Shortly after six o'clock the friends of the deceased commenced to assemble at the late residence of the Chief Justice, on Indiana avenue, near 3d street, among whom were President Lincoln, Secretary Seward, Attorney General Bates, and Pos master General Dennison, and after the family and friends had taken a last look at the features of the deceased, the lid of the coffin was closed, and the corpse was borne to the hearse by six colored servants. A few minutes to seven o'clock the procession moved off in the following order: Four detailed policemen; carriage containing Rev. Father Walter of St. Patrick's Church, and Dr. Grafton Tyler, of Georgetown, one of the physicians who attended the deceased; pall-bearers, in car riages, viz., Messrs J. M Carlisle, W. J. Stone. ir., D. W. Middleton, Clerk of the Supreme Court; W. H. Lamon, Marshal of the District of Columbia; Conway Robinson and Mr. Tyler, of Frederick; hearse containing the corpse, on either side of which walked two policemen; carriages containing J. Mason Campbell and son; Joseph Taney, nephew of deceased, and we believe the only male relative of the name living, and Messrs. Howard and Perrine, relatives of deceased; carriage containing President Lincoln; carriage containing the Secretary of State, Postmaster General, and Attor-ney General; carriages containing other friends of the deceased; followed by other carriages containing the servants.

In this order the cortege moved to the depot where it arrived just before the regular train left, the hall being crowded with persons preparing to take the train, and a number of carriages being in front. A space was, however, cleared in front of the building, and the procession, after forming on the pavement, walked through the depot with uncovered heads, those in the depot standing still and lifting their hats as the body was moved to the car which was to take it on its way to its last resting place. All those who accompanied the remains with the exception of the President, Secretary Seward and Postmaster General Dennison who are unable to leave the city on account of the press of business) took their seats in the cars which shortly after left for Frederick. The train will arrive at Frederick at halfpart eleven o'clock-after taking on at the Relay House a number of the friends of the deceased from Baltimore-and the remains will be immediately taken to the church, where at noon solemn high mass will be celebrated, after which the body will be interred in the ceme-tary at that place. In accordance with the wishes of the family there will be as little display as possible, and probably there will be no sermon preached. FURTHER POSTPONEMENT .- The case of Mrs.

Eckhard alias Senorita Lopez, who is charged with abducting, or, as the lawyers styled it, kidknapping a child named George Winfield Seigrist, the adopted son of Francis Seigrist, New York, came up for a hearing before Justice Johnson yesterday afternoon. W. D. Davidge, Esq., appeared for the prosecution, and Wm. A. Wharton, Esq., for the defence. The writs and other documents were exhibited and writs and other documents were exhibited and the evidence referred to in yesterday's Star was again given for the benefit of the counsel. The Justice then swore the defendant and asked her if the child was the offspring of her loins, to which she replied that he was. Mr. Davidge asked who was the father? To which she replied that she did not consider herself bound to answer. Mr. D. then remarked that he would inquire if the child was born in wed-lock? to which question she replied that he was not. The question of sending the case to New York for adjudication was discussed by the counsel for and against. The point inci-dentally suggested whether a mother could kidnap her own child was discussed. The argument was closed by the Justice who wished to have evidence not before him at present; and he he'd the defendant to ball in $500 for her appearance with the child on Friday next.

Mr. Les continued his bond as her security.

Justice Cartter granted a decree annulling the marriage of Rossetta Rouse with Joseph T. Rouse, on the petition of Rossetta Rouse, filed on 11th of July last. The petitioner sets forth that her maideu name was Rossetta Bradley, and that she married the repondent in the year 1855, in this District, where they lived until 1860, when they went to Virginia, and about the 4th of June ast he deserted her. The petitioner believes that he went to Raltimore, where he joined a woman, and took the cars for some destination

DECREE OF DIVORCE.-This morning, Chief

She also charges that his treatment was never that of a dutiful husband to a dutiful wife, which she has ever been to him: that he generally stinted her and never allowed her he necessaries of life, which his circumstances would reasonably have allowed, and that he left her without making any provision for her or her child, now about seven years of age. She further charges that he has been guilty of adultery with divers women, among others the one from Baltimore above referred to, with whom he cohabited from time to time for six or twelve months, and also that he attempted to commit a rape on a girl named Eliza Turner about one year since.

The respondent not being present, the usual publication was made and he did not appear, when the testimony was taken and the above facts were elicited. M. Thompson, Esq., appeared for the petitioner.

WHOLESALE HORSE-STEALING BUSINESS DE

rected.—Justice Miller, at the Second Ward station, had a horse-stealing case before him that promises to lead to extensive develop-Samuel Jones, Daniel Chase, and Alsop Hasey, all colored, were brought up on charge of horse-stealing, and the charge was fully proven, the stolen property being found in their Another colored man of the gang who has been in the employ of James L. Henry, of Prince George's county, has been arrested in Maryland in the same connection, the animals stolen there being two horses and two mules. The stolen horses were found in the possession of Michael Jones, who does business at Nathan's stables on Twelfth street.

The colored men, on examination, stated that they were employed by a man named W. H. Price, who was in the employ of Joseph Nathan, and that Price gave direction to them to oring whatever horses they could steal to said Mitchell Jones, as he was in that line of business and would dispose of them: and Price also admonished them to be careful, not to get Justice Miller held Price and Jones to bail in $2,000 each, for their appearance for a further hearing, at 12 o'clock on Monday. Joseph Nathan gave bail for Mitchell Jones. The colored men were committed to appear as witnesses. GRAND LARCENY .- Yesterday afternoon, Mary Davis, colored, was arrested by Roundsman Kelly, for the larceny of clothes, &c., valued at fifty dollars, from G. W. Foster. This norning it appeared in evidence before Justice iberson, that the accused was hired by the presecutor as a house servant. She was at the cuse a day-and-a-half, when she disappeared with the clothes. Mr. Foster notified the police and they went in search of her, Mr. Foster himself, found her at the depot getting ready to leave in the evening train for Baltimore. She was taken by Foster and turned over to Roundsman Kelly. She was sent to jail for court, and a large quantity of the property was recovered, and sent to the office of the property. The girl says that a man gave her a ticket to go on the train, and a note directing her to Mrs. White's, No. 219 Madison street, near Enser, Baltimore. She came originally from Augusta, Ga., but was sold a few weeks ago for $1,000 Confederate money in Richmond, but escaped from there to the Union lines. She is a smart looking girl, about 16 years of age.

JUNIUS BRUTUS BOOTH .- Three, at least, of the four sons of the late J. B. Booth, the tragedian, appear to have inherited the brilliant genius of their renowned father. Two of these-Edwin and John Wilkes-are already known to the play-going public of Washington, and the third, and not least gifted -JUNIUS BRUTUS, eldest of the three brothers-will, brough the enterprise of Mr. Ford, be intro uced to our public at Ford's Theater, next Conday night.

Mr. Booth has but recently returned from alifornia, where, in the past fifteen years, he has been garnering up the richest of "golden pinions." He is a brilliant actor, of the neryous and intellectual school, is liberally endowed with the best physical requirements of his profession, and remarkably resembles his father in the earlier days of the latter. He will open in Richard the Third, supported by that charming woman and excellent actress-Miss Alice Gray.

A STRIKE BY MISTAKE.—It is well known that a commission is appointed every two months at the Navy Yard to ascertain the rates f wages paid to mechanics thoughout the city, with a view of rating the pay of the workmen of the Yard and a few days since the commission performed that duty, but their report has not yet received the approval of the Department. This morning, however, some of the blacksmiths got a hurried look at the schedule, but, unfortunately, they mistook blockmakers, $3.25 per day," for blacksmiths, at that rate. The report at once was in circulation that the blacksmiths, now getting $3.33 per day, would, under the schedule, be docked 8 cents per day, and some of the blacksmiths imme:liately stopped work for a time in consequence, until the odd mistake was explained. Detectives McDevit and Clarvoe, who, as we yesterday stated, had, while acting under the direction of Col. Baker, made the important arrest of counterfeiters at Port Jervis, New York, have returned to this city, bringing the following parties arrested by them: William Rogerson, engraver of the notes; Jos. Norris, owner of the plates and presses; and Asa Mar-vin, concerned with them. They also bring the counterfeit press and plates, and a large amount of counterfeit paper, some of it printed only on one side. These active young officers, as well as Col. Baker, deserve infinite credit for these important arrests.

THE CANAL .- Fears are entertained that the ncursions of the rebel guerrilla bands into Maryland, along the line of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, will again result in very serious injury to the western trade, especially on the canal. The stealing of a team or two, or the destruction of a boat, is sufficient to alarm the boatmen, who before lost heavily by the raids of Mosby and the invasion of Early, and induce them to refuse freight and stay at home. Moreover, the canal officers fear that the gangs of rebel thieves may so seriously damage the canal itself as to effectually prevent navigation during the remainder of the season. If the reports from the upper sections are true, those fears are not unreasonable. The reports concur in the statement that the canal is without military protection, and that the pickets formerly stationed along the line have been withdrawn. The gangs engaged in these incursions are not regarded by their victims as soldiers engaged in honorable warfare, but as gangs of thieves, who are associated only when opportunities for large profits is offered for a sate expedition, and that they are not entitled to the treatment of prisoners of war.
